HOW DO YOU LET YOUR COLLEGE STUDENT
KNOW THAT YOU ARE THINKING OF THEM?

Bon Appétit created Thinking of You as an easy and thoughtful way for you to show your encouragement and support that is sure to be appreciated. And you can add a personal note for that “extra touch”.

Our Thinking of You program provides you the opportunity to send a wholesome, fresh and eye appealing gift filled with a selection of foods to your son or daughter. Packages include seasonal fresh fruit from local producers (when available), home-baked goods, natural soft drinks and much more. A note card and email will be placed in your student’s mailbox explaining where to pick up their gift.

Thinking of You lets you surprise those special students in your life with a fun and uplifting gift guaranteed to put a smile on their face and lighten those hungry, late night study sessions.
